Regimental Historians

Standing: Debra Cooper, Raphael Payne, Darla Daniel, Ronald Chambless, Charlene Heddlesten, Ross Winship, Renee Byrd, Michael Trapp, Nila Smith, Kathy Green.

Seated: Tyree Johnson, Sheila Hockersmith, Wendie Crawford (Junior Editor), Sharla Frost (Editor), Martha Thomas, Sue Dillworth.

Through tears and arguments and hurt feelings the students above put together this 1980 annual and it is the best one to come out of Fort Towson. The staff were trained in how to put an annual together and then left to supply the creativity and work on their own. The students responded marvellously, as can be seen by the product. It is hoped that this student control over the annual will become a tradition at Fort Towson.

What is a School
Demon?

Those who drive the teachers so crazy,
that the teachers are glad to let us out of class--

Those who always have great ideas, but they are sometimes against the law--

Those who can always find a reason to have

Fort Towson was built in 1864 to protect the growing settlements along the Red River.

It was the second fort to be built in Indian territory. In time the fort was abandoned and the town established.

Then the most important part of its history occurred. The early part of the 1900's was when our school was founded, which is why you are reading our yearbook today.

women in a new light

FHA was organized at "The Fort" decades ago. Since its inception it has been an important part of our battalion. The members learn skills for adult life through their activities

- (1) Mrs. Tepe and the Sophmore class hard at work learning a few sewing skills.
- (2) Freshmen initiation with its unusual flair.
- (3) Mrs. Tepe presenting Christy Harrington, FHA's first Girl of the Month, with the FHA rose.
- (4) Don Baze, Gwen Frost, and Becky Jernigan enjoying the bustle of the Okla. State Fair.
- (5) Banana the Bear - FHA's adopted mascot.
- (6) Wendie Crawford (Pres.) informing Booty Chambles (Beau) of his honor.
- (7) Mrs. Tepe (Sponsor) and husband demonstrating the dance steps of yesteryear.
- (8) Jean Shrewsbury taking in the sights of the Okla. State Fair.

Co-ordinated Vocational Educational Training consists of young people in grades 9th and 10th wishing to receive on the job training.

C.V.E.T.

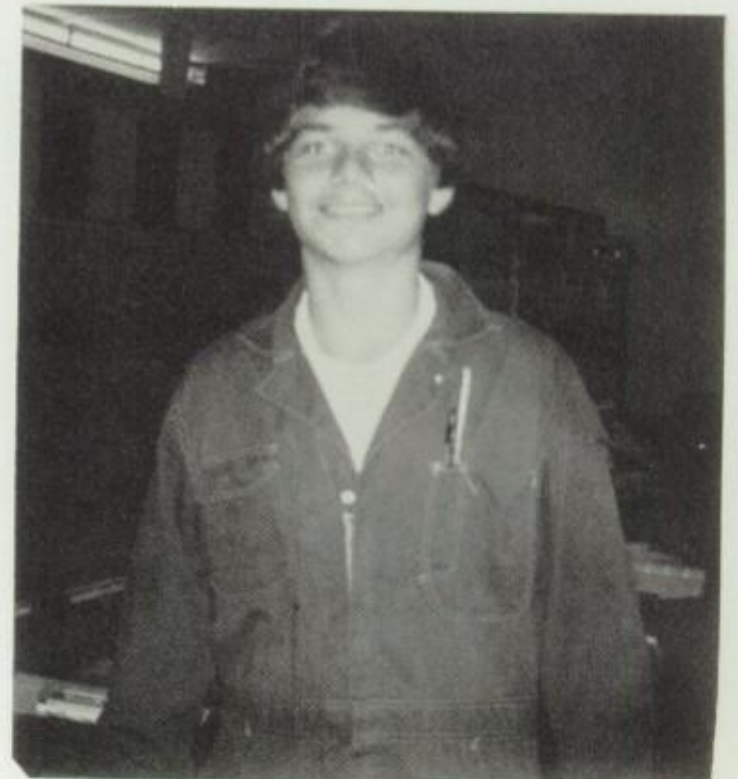

Co-ordinated Vocational Educational Training was one of the newest programs offered during the 1979-80 school year. It was a comprehensive program which taught students vocational occupations such as masonry, and gave opportunities for on-the-job experience. Advised by Mr. David Browning, C.V.E.T. has been one of our greatest educational improvements.

Along with job training CVET students must also complete the required academic courses tomorrow!!

The F F A Chapter consists of young men and women in grades 9th through 12th working to make the future better for themselves and others.

Future

Farmers

Livestock, Agriculture, Land Judging, Farming and Electricity are important parts of the Ft. Tomsen Future Farmers. Their advisor, Mr. Fleming, leads a helping hand in preparing the successful future. Each are well trained in all areas to provide them with a well rounded agricultural background.
